How do I prepare my child academically and/or financially for college?

- You can help your child make informed decisions about his or her college

- Find helpful information to prepare your child for college

- There are many federal, state, and private educational savings programs. Educational IRA's, prepa

- Find more information regarding these and other educational savings plans