WASHINGTON, DC â€“ Congressman Joe Courtney late yesterday voted for legislation that will offer billions of dollars in tax cuts and new lending to small businesses across eastern Connecticut. The Small Business Jobs Act will expand small business lending and provide targeted tax incentives to spur hiring. The bill also creates a $30 billion lending fund that will increase the flow of capital from local community banks to small business owners nationwide.