

I will be traveling to the Middle East next month. How can I find out if it is safe for me to go?
With the situation in the Middle East changing on a daily basis, you should check with the State Department. Find out detailed, updated information on travel warnings and public information